

"I strongly oppose the KGIA and predict that its establishment will generate serious problems...imbuing pan-Arabism and anti-Zionism, proselytizing for Islam, and promoting Islamist sympathies will predictably make up the school's true curriculum."

-Daniel Pipes, director of the Middle East Forum, regarding the Khalil Gibran Academy, as published in The New York Sun.

-The Forward, August 21 2009, referring to Marc Stern, acting co-executive director of the American Jewish Congress
